AGREEMENT NOT REACHED ON VICTORY LOAN BILL

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 1 .- Republican Senators tonight failed to reach an agreement as to their course on the "victory loan" bill, which was called up in the Senate late today by administration leaders who sought to bring differences over legislation to an issue. The Republicans met in conference at the call of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, to discuss the advisability of blocking the loan measure in an effort to force an extra session of the new

Some of those attending the conference said a majority of the senators were opposed to a filibuster on the bill. Many of the minority, however, were said to vigorously favor obstructive tacties and as the conference left each senator free to shape his own course on the floor, obstruction was possible.
